OUTFOXED: RUPERT MURDOCH'S WAR ON JOURNALISM

A DOCUMENTARY BY ROBERT GREENWALD

AN INSIDE LOOK AT HOW FOX NEWS DISTORTS THE TRUTH AND CORRUPTS THE PUBLIC DISCOURSE

Consolidation in the media has emerged as a major threat to American democracy. As fewer media companies determine what hundreds of millions of people see, read and hear, public opinion and debate are shaped in profoundly important ways. Perhaps no individual or organization personifies this trend more than Rupert Murdoch and Fox News Channel. The “Fox Effect” has had a major impact on broadcast and print reporting and journalistic standards. How does such profound concentration of control affect the accuracy of news and the diversity of viewpoints? What does it portend for the future of democratic participation? These questions are explored in this groundbreaking new documentary film from director Robert Greenwald.
